“ I worked with Al years ago at Lancaster County Domestic Relations. He was extremely intelligent, kind, passionate to serve clients, helpful to his co-workers, and funny. All around a wonderful person. He will be missed.

“ I agree with Elaine that Al advocated for his clients but was always fair and reasonable. I settled all of my cases against him as well. Al was always pleasant to work with. In fact, I cannot remember ever seeing or hearing of Al being upset about anything which is rare in our line of work. He will be missed. I will keep Al and his family/friends in my prayers.

“ My condolences go out to his family. I practiced family law “against” Al. We had many many cases together over the years. We settled all of them. He advocated for his clients, but was always fair and reasonable. I am saddened by his death.

“ I worked in the same office as Al this past year. He was always a joy to speak with. Always had a smile on his face. Easy going guy and at times made me laugh with some of our conversations. He spoke highly of his sister and niece. You can tell he loved his family. Thinking of him brings a smile to my face. Praying for the family during this difficult time.
