

Antonio Collazo

March 28, 2011

Antonio (Tony) L. Collazo, 71, of Lancaster was surrounded by his family when he went home to the Lord on March 26, 2011.

Tony was born in San Juan, PR. After enlisting in the United States Army he moved to Honolulu Hawaii where he met his wife, Linda of almost forty years.

Tony retired from Anvil in 2010. After retiring it gave him more time to enjoy spending quality time with his family. He enjoyed working on cars, playing scrabble, watching NFL football (especially the Steelers), crossword puzzles, watching and playing golf. He also looked forward to his daily paper especially the Comics.

In addition to his loving wife, he is survived by sons: Alexander and his wife Mandy in Hawaii, Anthony and his wife Li-Ann of Hawaii, Donald Cruz and wife Melena of Lancaster, daughter; Cheryl Brito and husband Wilfredo Brito of Lancaster, brother; Jose Collazo and his wife Margarita of New Jersey, sister; Millie and husband Larry Howard of New Jersey, 11 grandchildren and 3 beautiful great grandchildren.

Tony adored every moment with his family. He will always be in our hearts until we meet again. Love you always and forever!

“ Just can't believe it has been 14 years since you have gone to be with the Lord. So much has happened since then. I know you are in a better place. I am glad you are not suffering. You were ready..... I was not. I miss you dad.
