“ Condolences to Dan's family and loved ones. Dan and I went back 30 years while working at ITT. I considered him a good friend as we shared many laughs and honest conversations. He loved telling stories of the cruises he went on with loved ones, his love of trains and the joy he found in decorating for Christmas. Dan was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it as well as sharing some of his favorite dishes with friends. The man was certainly a great cook. Dan enjoyed the simple pleasures in life such as riding his motorcycle or just spending time with family. I take comfort in knowing Dan is now at peace in God's heavenly kingdom. Sincerely, Sam Field

“ Alice, and all Dan's family I worked with Dan at ITT for many years he was always good to talk to and have a laugh with. He enjoyed the same musical work as I did so I knew I could stop in the Skotch weld shop and hear some tunes. So glad to have known him. God rest his soul. Nikki Koenig

“ Danny, It was a pleasure to be your niece and to have your love and kindness in my life. We may have been close in age to be Uncle and Niece and many times we seemed more like cousins but, I loved you and respected you always. Thank you for being my uncle, friend, and a kind soul. RIP my dear and until we meet again, be our shining bright star and keep watch over us. Love you, Robin 💙💛💛💛💛
