So sorry to find that Ed has passed away. Since I moved to Delaware, I am not able to keep up with things such as this back in Lancaster Co. When I was with EHTPD, I regularly interacted with Ed on calls where Rohrerstown Fire Co. responded. He was always good to work with and he was the consummate professional. My condolences to his family. Ed will certainly be missed!

“ I learned to know Ed much better as we both were involved with several church committees. He became a good friend and we were able to enjoy each others company. He had a special sense of humor that brought a smile from me on many occasions. He truly loved his wife, Sandy, and was hugely involved with many tasks and positions at the Rohrerstown Fire Company. I admired his dedicated service! I celebrate his life and pray he is now with God. Ann and Lee Ober
