

Edwin J. Tedeschi

December 17, 2024

Edwin Joseph Tedeschi, 83, of Blue Bell, PA, passed away on Tuesday, December 17, 2024, at Fox Chase Cancer Center. Born in Altoona, PA, he was the son of the late Edwin John and Edith Sue (Santella) Tedeschi. He was the loving husband of Kathleen Elizabeth (Cleaves) Tedeschi.

Edwin graduated from Conestoga High School in Berwyn, PA, and later earned an associate's degree in business from Goldey-Beacom College in Wilmington, DE.

Edwin was a man who appreciated life's simple pleasures. He was happiest spending time on the water boating, fishing, and crabbing. He and Kathy spent many happy summers in Mystic Island, NJ and later moved to Pembroke Pines, FL where they enjoyed a relaxed Florida lifestyle for many years before returning to Pennsylvania.

A talented musician, Edwin's love of music was a constant throughout his life. He played bass guitar for many years as a member of The Sound Investment and never lost his passion for it. Above all, Edwin was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He was always there for his grandchildren, attending their activities and sporting events, always cheering them on. His wardrobe consisted almost entirely of apparel from their high school and college teams reflecting his pride.

In addition to his wife, Edwin is survived by their daughter, Kristi Tedeschi (Brandon Turner) and his daughters Dina Gross (Stephen) and Anne-Marie Rischitelli (John); his grandchildren, Connor, William, Matthew, and Michael Gross, Ryan, Lauren, and Jack Rischitelli; his goddaughter, Paige Sioma; and his beloved fur-baby, Agave.

His sense of humor and quick wit will be missed by all who knew him.

A Celebration of Edwin's Life will be held in Spring of 2025. Please email Kristi Tedeschi at kristilee4444@gmail.com if you would like more information as details are finalized.
