“ To the family of Fay Bledsoe,

I got to know your mother when she was working as a secretary at Millersville in the Industrial Arts Dept. I was a Special Education major and I was taking a course called "Industrial Arts for the Special Education Major." This was back in the early 1970's so there weren't many women in the building. Somehow, I met your mom and we became friends. We sent each other Christmas cards until 2012!! She was one of those special people who made everyone feel comfortable and welcome. I know you will miss your mother. I recently lost my father at age 84, so I understand. May you know the comfort only GOD can give..

*Most sincerely,
Deb Hagey*
