“ I spent many an hour in the radio room at the old City Police Station early in my career, both as a cadet and later a patrolman. Jim was a joy to work with. Jim was someone who cared about his job and the people he encountered and he loved a good joke. Jim was also the voice of calm when things got hectic. I have many good memories from my time as a Lancaster City Police officer and Jim certainly ranks up there among the best. I know all in his family will cherish their own memories of him. My sincere condolences.
