

Jane Mae Koller

August 30, 2021

Jane Mae Koller (Nee Parry) was united with her Savior and reunited with her daughters, Linda Koller and Janet Hottinger, Monday, August 30, 2021.

Born in Shamokin, PA. She was the daughter of the late Maude Mae Parry and William Arlington Parry. Jane married Wilson “Bill” Koller on November 2, 1946, sharing nearly 75 years together. Nothing brought Jane more joy than being with her loving husband and family.

Jane is survived by her husband, Bill, children: William (Cindy) Koller, Robert (Linda) Koller, Barbara (Dan) Miller, and Beth Koller Grove; and many grandchildren, great- grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

Jane was a member of Grace E.C. Church of Lancaster and a founding member of Grace Community Church of Willow Street. She also enjoyed spending time at the family cottage at the Herndon E.C Campground.

Jane worked at The School District of Lancaster cafeteria for 20 plus years. She baked a mean pan of cinnamon buns and the world’s best coconut cake, apple dumplings and peanut brittle.

Jane was preceded in death by sisters, Margaret Reinfried and Shirley Sipe and brothers, William Parry and Donald Parry.

The family kindly requests masks be worn during the services to protect the children and vulnerable.

A Funeral Service will be held on Friday September 3, 2021 at 11:00 a.m. at Grace Community Church, 212 Peach Bottom Road, Willow Street, PA 17584. Friends are welcome to greet the family at 10:00 a.m. at the church. Interment will be private.

“ Aunt Jane was one of the most loving, kindest people you could ever have the privilege of meeting this side of heaven. I can only imagine the party welcoming her into heaven! ❤️

“ Bill and Jane Koller are the epitome of Christianity. I love this couple and many in our congregation have said they "want to grow up to be just like the Koller's". Jane will be missed for her beautiful smile and her quiet spirit. I am thankful that I know I will see her again someday. My prayers are with Bill and his family at this time. In Christ's love, Linda Hershey

“ I have not seen or spoken with Bill or Jane in over 40 years, but as a young man I remember well your presence and stable example at Grace EC Church at Shippen and Locust Streets in Lancaster.

It is with great fondness that I reflect on you and your families kindness to me and many others.

I am unable to attend the services as I am in Florida, but I pray that God will be with you and your family and heal your hearts as you grieve the loss of Jane.

Please accept my heartfelt and sincere condolences. Gary L Grossman, 419 Coffee Goss Rd. Marietta, Pa.

“ Wilson,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in this time of sorrow. Jane will be greatly missed, keep all these wonderful memories close to your heart. Will miss seeing her smile in the doctors office, always loved seeing her. Prayers for all.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Mrs. Koller but know how much her daughter Linda loved and appreciated her mother and family for the support offered her. She often spoke to me of her sisters Beth and Barbara when I knew her at the Blind Association (now Vision Corps) where Linda was a valued and loved employee. When Linda passed away, a family member delivered a lovely figurine to me. When I dust my shelves, I always think of Linda. God bless all of her family.

“ I remember Jane as being a very loving mother and grandmother. She enjoyed her visit to Kenya and even up in Pokot where we were then living. Her smile was so precious.
