“ Jay Wilbur Frey or Bill Frey was a Lancaster County legend. I ran into this kind man countless times over a 20 year period. Usually you would be in a store or in some public place and hear some commotion in the distance; sure enough it was Bill Frey making his rounds. Bill must have covered half of Lancaster County on foot - from New Holland to Millersville! "I found ten pennies!!" The man was awesome. May God Bless his soul.

“ My sympathy to the extended Frey family. Unfortunately, I am out of town at the time of the funeral. Jay Wilber Frey was an employee of Sensenich Corp. as was his son Edward Frey. Jay always was knowledgeable about current events and applied common sense in his comments. He was always friendly and shared the Gospel of Jesus Christ gained from years of repeatedly reading the Bible. He was a night watchman but also a family man with Biblical wisdom. Sincerely, Gary Sensenich
