

Jesse Micah Tedder

January 6, 2018

Jesse Micah Tedder, 31, of Landisville, PA, went home to be with the Lord following a car accident on January 6, 2018. Born in Dallas, Texas, he was the son of Larry and Tia Walker Tedder, Lancaster, PA. Jesse was a Christian and gave his life to Christ at six years old.

He graduated from Hempfield High School in 2004 where he excelled in football, lacrosse, track and diving. Jesse was also an NCAA Springboard Diver at West Chester University.

Jesse proudly served his country in the United States Navy. After four years of service, he received an Honorable Discharge in 2017. He worked at Arconic as a heavy equipment operator in the Cast House for the past year.

He was a passionate bodybuilder whose enthusiasm and motivation inspired others to reach their full potential. Over the years he could be found at Hempfield Recreation Center and Gold's Gym generously lending his fitness expertise. Whether you were asking for help or needed the encouragement of a coach, he was always there to offer guidance.

He will be remembered for personifying a superhero as much as anyone could. No one can forget a "Jesse Hug" and his ability to see "the glass, not half full, but full to the brim."

In addition to his parents, he is survived by sisters, Anna, wife of Jake Kail, Leola, PA, and Amy Tedder, London, England; his brother, John Tedder of Landisville, PA, his nephew Jude Kail, and niece, Taryn Kail. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Jesse and Rita Walker and L.V. and Jackie Tedder.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Jesse's Funeral Service at Worship Center, 2384 New Holland Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601, on Friday, January 12, 2018 at 12:30 p.m. with Pastor Matt Mylin officiating. The family will hold a viewing and receive friends at Worship Center on Friday from 10:30 a.m. until the time of service.

In lieu of flowers, the Tedder family chose the Four Diamonds fund to receive donations in Jesse's honor. Donations may be made at www.fourdiamonds.org

“ Dear Larry and Tia;

Christ taught the multitudes in Matthew 5:4 with these words:

*Blessed are those who mourn,
For they will be comforted.*

God has promised you comfort. I trust you will find it in your faith, the blessings of friends and family and the memory of Jesse.

“ Dear Larry & Tia,
We are so sorry for your loss! From our first family gatherings, we could see Jesse's outgoing, charming personality. Jesse was a patient and kind playmate for Patrick and Alex then toddlers. You could clearly see his outgoing and loving spirit. We learned so much about parenting watching you interact with your kids. We will always fondly remember those family get togethers.

“ Dear Tia and Larry,
I'm So very very Sorry to read about this. I can't imagine your grief and broken hearts. You know Jesse is with Jesus, but your agony now must be almost unbearable. Wish I could be there to hug you both. I pray God's Great Help for you, His comfort, His strength. His breath in your lungs when you don't have any. Know that you're being prayed for and loved.

“ One of the first memories I have of Jesse was when we were working together at Golds. Darin Fry and him were doing rock, paper, scissors to see who had to clean up a poopy diaper left in the guys locker room. Jesse won the first round, but I made them do best out of 3, causing Jesse to lose. Jesse spread laughter wherever he went. He was colorful and full of life. Just about everything he did was all or nothing. I loved the way his face lit up and how animated he became when he was talking about something he was passionate about. His presence will always be felt, he will always be remembered. I couldn't be more thankful for the little time I had with Jesse. My prayers and thoughts go to the Tedder family and to everyone who knew Jesse.

“ I worked with Jesse at Hempfield Rec and worked out with him many times. I will never forget his gigantic smile, positive attitude, helpful nature, and intense work ethic. I am so sorry for your loss and will keep your family in my prayers, and I will always keep Jesse's spirit in my mind to continually strive for one more rep.

“Tia and Larry,
I remember little Jesse running around my yard in Louisiana in his Indian suit. He definitely was a warrior. 2 Samuel 20 is a song of praise David sang on the day that the Lord rescued him from his enemies and from Saul. He mentions in verse 35 that the Lord "trains my hands for battle and he strengthens my arms to bend a bow of bronze. "
Jesse was that scripture.
But now there's no more war.
Love you both.

“Larry & Tia: words cannot begin to express how my heart goes out to you and your family during this time. I wish I were closer to add my hugs and support in person. I know that your family has stood as a beacon of love to so many through the years -- as evidenced through Jesse's smile and spirit -- and I pray you will now sense that bubble of love surrounding and comforting each of you. Heaping tons of tender thoughts and prayers your way. Much love, Tracey (Phalen) Reed

“ The Tedder and Kail family have been like a second family to me. I have many wonderful memories with you and have always felt your inviting love over these last 12 years. I cherish you as a blessing from the Father. Though I haven't spent much time with Jesse, the stories I hear about his infectious love for life and charismatic joy have inspired me. I will forever believe Jesse lived always smiling and laughing. I am convinced now his joy has been made complete with the Father. May our God of Comfort and Strength be with you. I love you so very much and am grateful for the impact your faith has made on me and my family. May the Lord return the peace you have given to me double fold.

“ My nephew Jesse brought joy wherever he went. One summer ,as a teenager,he spent time in Baton Rouge La helping PawPaw and grandmother Rita do chores around the house and yard. My family enjoyed having him over to bbq and swim at the club pool. Jesse impressed all the folks there ,especially the girls,with his diving skills and infectious smile. Last Thanksgiving and moms memorial service were reasons for a family reunion. All the cousins got to reconnect and bond again. It was a wonderful time for our family with new cherished memories. We will all miss Jesse so much! He was so full of life and such a joy to be with! Our hearts break for the Tedder's and we continue to have u in our prayers.
