

John Edward Herweh

August 9, 2023

John Edward Herweh entered into the presence of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on August 9, 2023 at the age of 93. He was a beloved husband, brother, father, father-in-law, granddad and uncle and a longtime member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Lancaster.

John was born in the Bronx to the late John Phillip and Emily (Reiger) Herweh. He went to Concordia High School and Junior College, where he pitched a no-hitter as a left-hander. He received his Bachelor of Science and Masters degrees from the University of Virginia and went on to work at Armstrong World Industries as a research chemist, where he met his wife and “sweetie” of sixty-six years, Patricia Boone Herweh.

John and Pat lived in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where they raised their four children. Over the decades, this family grew to include ten grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Generous and loving, John was the perfect dad and granddad, always willing to help his children with their home projects whether it be painting, trimming Christmas trees, or gardening.

An avid hunter, gardener, and fisherman, he enjoyed time outdoors with his family and dogs. Over the years, John had three Weimaraners and a German Shorthair, Misty. Misty would go everywhere with him, including morning coffee trips en route to the garden at his daughter Jennifer’s house. Among the extended family's dogs, he quickly became known as the "biscuit man" and always had some treats handy to endear the family's furry, four-legged members to him.

Although John loved being at home, he would make the exception for traveling with family to Montana, Idaho, and the Outer Banks where he could pursue his passion for the outdoors in much-loved places with much-loved people. He also enjoyed going to his daughter and son-in-law's, Lynne and Rick's, cabin in Deerfield, Virginia.

When he wasn't outside, John was keeping meticulous records of everything from gas mileage to garden yields to hunting trip logs. He enjoyed making his hand-pressed apple cider, homemade bread, and pheasant chili.

John was truly devoted to his family and in Heaven, he was welcomed by his precious granddaughter, Kristin Lynn Palazzo.

Relatives and friends are invited to John's Funeral Service on Thursday,

To the entire Herweh clan! Please accept my deepest sympathy for John's Alzheimer's and subsequent death. He was an extraordinarily man and his legacy certainly lives on, with his extraordinary family.

I'm so sorry I wasn't able to attend the service; not only to pay homage to him, but to see all the family!

It's a sad day to bury a parent; a sad day to bury the Patriarch of the family. Find solace that he walks with Jesus & Kristin! Our early hearts are sad & broken, but we all know he's whole again and suffers no more. That's a huge solace.

Sending my sincere condolences with love. I will help you all in my prayers to heal your heavy hearts and carry on.

*Love always,
Pat Donnelly.*

“ John and I spent many hours in the lab together. He was a meticulous researcher and his work was highly respected. I have many memories of our spending hours working on the wording of a report or research paper. We hunted pheasant and grouse on many occasions, I think with the same intensity. . John was a great colleague and friend in all respects. My sincere condolences. He will be missed.
