“ I just now learned of Margot's passing. We were kids together in Oakland, Ca. I dated her sister, Jean Lasher as a senior in high school in 1958. Margot was around 3-years younger. My last vision of Margot was of her sitting on the family living room couch, legs curled up, reading a book.

75-years is too young to depart this earth. Sorry for your loss.

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to the Brubakers-- Ted and Betsy, and their families, especially the grandchildren she cared so deeply about. Margot and I were roommates during our four college years, and kept in touch, fortunate to meet up at our 50th Conn College reunion in 2015, and later, twice in Lancaster. So many memories of her vivid personality and friendship! Wishing you peace.

“ My condolences to your family. I met Mrs. Brubaker when I was in kindergarten (I'm almost 30 now) and remember how visiting her to get new books and talk about reading was the highlight of my week that year. She was a wonderful educator and made a difference.
