

Marie E. Lewis

August 24, 2012

Marie E. Lewis, 94, of Lancaster, died August 24, 2012, at Susquehanna Valley Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Columbia, PA. Marie was the fifth of nine children born to the late Harvey and Iva (Land) McCarson, and was the last surviving sibling.

Marie spent most of her early life in Penns Grove, New Jersey, until 1945 when she moved to Wilmington, Delaware. In 1959, she married Oscar J. Lewis, who died in 1993. Marie worked for 35 years at DuPont Chambers Works in Deepwater, New Jersey, until her retirement in 1977.

Always outgoing, bright and cheerful, Marie made friends wherever she went. She loved reading, country music, writing letters to friends, animals, time with her family. She was a lifelong Philadelphia Phillies fan.

Marie is survived by her daughter, Mrs. William (Catherine) Smith of Lancaster, and several nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

AF

“ I visited my great aunt at Susquehanna Valley and would often see you there with your Mom. I always admired how caring and patient you were. I send you my sincere condolences on your loss and hope that you will take great comfort in knowing that you were there for her. A Friend

A friend - August 28, 2012 at 04:44 AM

GT

“ Want to express to you my sympathy in the loss of your mother. We really enjoyed having her as a resident at Susquehanna Valley. She was always cheerful and pleasant.

You can rest in the peace that you were attentive to the needs of your mother and the Tuesday visits.

Will Miss seeing you here May God comfort you at this time and give you peace as you deal with this loss

Thinking of you

*Glenn Thomas RN
SVNRC*

Glenn R. Thomas - August 26, 2012 at 08:27 PM