

Max Andrew Curtin

March 26, 2020

Max Andrew Curtin, 18, of Lititz died unexpectedly on Thursday, March 26, 2020. Born in Lancaster, he was the loving middle son to his parents Terrence R. and Robin Feldman Curtin.

Max was in his first year at The University of Tennessee. He graduated from Hempfield High School as a member of the Class of 2019. He was a sweet and creative young man that had a wonderful ability to learn and self-taught himself how to play the guitar and drums. Max was incredibly smart mixed with a witty sense of humor as he navigated life with a soft heart. He adored and cared for his rescue cat Tokie.

In addition to his parents, Max was loved by his brothers Jacob and Benjamin and his grandparents Dr. Gerald and Sheila Feldman of Pikesville, MD and J. Lawrence and Lynn Curtin of Reading. He will be greatly missed by his many uncles and aunts: Gregory and Cynthia Curtin, Donna and Thomas Davis, Kim and Albert Lizmi, Beth and Jason Love. Max loved all his cousins: Robert, David, Austin, Sydnee, Darby, Sophie, Ethan, Samantha and Cameron.

Due to the health concerns with the coronavirus (Covid-19), the family will be having a private Funeral Service at Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, 75 East James Street, Lancaster with Rabbi Jack P. Paskoff officiating.

Private interment will be held at Shaarai Shomayin Cemetery.

The family will decide on a public Memorial Service once the health crisis subsides.

Memorial contributions in Max's name may be made to Music for Everyone, musicforeveryone.org.

“ Terrence, Robin, Jacob and Ben,

Karen and I are deeply saddened by the news of Max's passing. I have always enjoyed the stories that Terrence has shared with me about the boys and his immense pride in all of them. Max sounded like an extraordinary young man who's memory and spirit will carry on in hearts of everyone who knew him. The entire Curtin family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Terrance, Robin, Jacob, and Ben:

I am so terribly sorry to learn of Max's passing. I wish to extend my deepest sympathies to you all as you mourn the loss of your son and brother. It was just a month or so ago that I saw Robin and caught up briefly on the kids. She commented that Max loved Tennessee and that he was still playing the guitar. May God's love and the love of your family and friends be a source of strength for you now and in the days to come.

“ I came upon Max's obituary this morning, but only upon reading all the details did I recognize that this was my own family tree which has been so brutally shaken. Looking at his handsome photo I see his grandfather's good looks.

There is certainly nothing to say to parents, grandparents, brothers, or friends when such a young life is snatched away. I do not think wounds like this heal. But perhaps that he is forever treasured up in the beauty of his youth will make the memory bearable in time.

My heart breaks for you all.

Tom called me last night to tell me about Max. We were shocked. Our condolences to you and your family. I met Max at your home well over ten years ago and enjoyed dinner together. I remember Max was always smiling and very polite one. The most memorable photo was the one with smiling Ninja's of Max and two brothers wearing the Ninja outfit I brought to them from Japan.
