

MAX HELSEL

January 23, 2012

Max Helsel, 66, son, brother and dear friend passed away Saturday, January 14, 2012. Born in Erie, PA he was the son of the late Calvin Helsel and Dorothy Helsel-Miller. For many chapters of his life he called the Lancaster area his home. He will be greatly missed by his surviving relatives and many, many friends he made in various social and business circles.

A Celebration of Max's Life will be held at Lucky Dog Café, 1942 Columbia Avenue, Lancaster on Saturday, January 28, 2012 from 1 until 4:00 p.m. A Time of Remembrance will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Tribute Wall

MW

“ Omg there are not words on how I feel about dear Max , knew him when we were kids! I met Max when we were around eight years old, and hung around together until we were about eighteen, knew all the brothers, and his stepsister also, and of course his Mom. I never had a better friend then him, he was like a brother I never had! It grieves me dearly to come across this! Dear Max I will always remember you! Regards Mike

Mike Waratuke - August 16, 2013 at 06:31 PM

BH

“ Today we celebrate the passing of a good friend, one who will be surly missed by every one who knew him. I have known Max for the past 25 years and can tell stories from the many happy hours we had together. He was a man who really enjoyed life to its fullest. Sorry I can not attend the celebration of his life, but I will have him in my thoughts. God bless you Max.

Bob Halter - January 27, 2012 at 03:46 AM

JJ

“ I first met Max back in the 70's and we became life long friends. He was always looking to help someone out, to lend an ear and to set you straight. A friend I truly miss.
Rest in Peace my friend, I'm having a "Beam" for you.

John

John Dickey Jr - January 26, 2012 at 11:58 PM

DM

“ In the many years I've known Max, he was a person who gave of his self & his time to help others. He was a worldly person, who made friends wherever he was. I was glad to be of assistance to Max this past summer, helping him with transportation. It was an opportunity to learn more about him & his life.

Dave Mitchell - January 26, 2012 at 09:14 PM

VF

“ Although it has been quite awhile since I have seen Max; I remember him as quite the fun loving guy. I first met him when he was in the restaurant business back in the '70's. He was always good friend to me.

Farewell old friend

Val

Valarie (shaub) Foehlinger - January 25, 2012 at 12:57 AM