“ I am sending belated sympathies from the Gunzenhauser family. My stepfather, Art Gunzenhauser, worked at Mike's shop for a good number of years. Art spoke of him as a good friend, rather than an employer. Apologies for the delayed response. Joyce and Alicia don't get the newspaper at their facilities.
Sincerely, Sharon Papademetrious.

“ Mike was one of the best friends I ever had. For a few years we ran together doing the clubs. But we hung out together for about 35 years, and I knew him for 60 years. He was a good guy that always tried to do the right thing. He loved to laugh, and laughed about almost everything I said. I'm glad I made him smile often. He will be missed by many. RIP my dear friend until I see you again on the other side. I loved you like a brother.

“ Mr. Gemmill was a kind and warm man who ran his business with integrity. He did many good deeds but never drew attention to them. He was truly a blessing!

His legacy can be seen in son, who I came to know through work, and his grandchildren who he adored, as well as the other loved ones he impacted. May he rest in Heavenly peace. God bless his family.

“ I met Mike 47 years ago through my husband Chuck, who was Mike's right hand man at the Bodyshop. Words cannot explain how much we loved Mike. He was not just Chuck's best friend, he was like a big brother to him. Time will heal the pain, but we will miss him greatly. It just won't be the same without him. To the entire Gemmill Family, our condolences go out to each and every one of you. RIP Mike, you will forever be in our hearts. Lugene Pasker

Visiting Mike at the shop, he only talked about Jeff. I really thought Mike wanted to be with Jeff in Heaven. Your with your friend!

“ Mike was a good friend of mine. We use to go to the dance clubs together, and other places. He was a clean cut no drugs, no doing dishonest stuff. He was a pure blooded good guy. I haven't seen him as much now that I live 250 miles a trip a way. Mike loved to laugh, and his laugh made others laugh. What a great lost of a dear, dear friend. So SAD! Wayne

Yes indeed, Mike was wonderful to all he served. My late wife and I had the pleasure of Mike being our neighbor on South Prince Street for many years. A finer neighbor we could never ask for. I believe we were amongst the first businesses to participate in the K.O.Z. Program sharing information as to the procedure of application etc. I must say he was an artist in the work he performed at his place of business. He provided us, in my opinion the sharpest forklift on S. Prince St. Yes he was a very gracious man and I am sure he shall be missed by all he served. God bless you Mike because you are certainly deserving of his blessings. To his family my sincere sympathy to all. To my dear friend and neighbor may you rest in peace and may your memory be eternal.
