“ It was with great sorrow that we read of Nancy's death. We have many fond memories of good times shared with you when we were new parents after the births of Lisa and Melissa, continuing with the addition of Vanessa and Amy (and later Elizabeth for us). Whether we were completing gingerbread houses or another delightful project, Nancy led the fun. We share your sorrow and reach out to you with deepest sympathy. Linda and Jim Campbell and family.

“ I did not know Nancy well, but remember the visit we had at Oblender's Furniture store about 35 or 40 years ago concerning the genealogy of the Oblender Family. She was very pleasant and kind. We are the Great Great Grandchildren of C.A. Oblender who died in 1903. My prayers go out to the Werner and Oblender families.
Sincerely,
Rick Atwater

“ Dear John, Lisa and Vanessa,
So sorry for your loss. Had no idea Nancy was so sick. Saw her at the store several months ago and talked about getting together but I am so ashamed I did not pursue it further. I have such good memories of our times and especially of the wonderful support she was to me when I was going through some very rough times. She was a very special lady and I know your memories and all the wonderful traditions she shared as a family will continue to sustain you through this difficult time. Prayers go with you as you all have your very own special angel watching over all of you.
Love you,
Fay

“ God saw you getting tired
A cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Your tender hands at rest.
God took you home to prove to us....
He only takes the best.

“ We had so little time these last years getting to know you again....lost years; for this we are truly sorry. For those special times we've been together this last year, we are truly grateful and pray that we will continue to be part of John's life.
May God bless and keep all of you in his arms as the healing from your loss begins.

*Our love to all,
Pat & Lou*

“ We love you Aunt Nan. We will miss your kindness, hugs, smile, and sweetness towards us and our children. You were a wonderful example of selflessness and godliness. I will forever be grateful that I got to spend holidays and celebrations with you as I grew up and I will especially think of you during those times. We look forward to honoring you at the service.
