

Robert F. Groff Jr.

November 2, 2023

Robert F. Groff, Jr., 93 years young, of Lancaster, PA died on Thursday, November 2, 2023. Born in Lancaster, he came into this world as the son of Robert F. Groff and Nancy Snyder Groff.

For the next 93 years he shared his good fortune with his family, friends, his church and his community, and with it, his open smile, his twinkling eyes and his deep curiosity. It was a curiosity that was sometimes philosophical, sometimes whimsical, sometimes irreverent, and always joyful. His mantra was: God loves you; Let go, let God; Be here now!

As he loved to recount, he heard “God loves you,” from Archbishop Desmond Tutu, when Tutu delivered the homily in Harrisburg for the installation of Nathan Baxter as Bishop.

Bob always sat in the right front pew of his beloved St. James Episcopal Church. On the wall next to that pew was the inscription: “Death is but a refinement of life.” This he knew and believed. St. James named Bob a Life Vestry member.

Bob was a ninth-generation Lancastrian. He possessed the natural confidence that comes with the Groff legacy dating back to 1695. He knew he was deeply rooted in Lancaster, and he knew Lancaster was a good place. Throughout his life, his sense of rootedness remained. He was the third generation to work in and eventually own the Fred F. Groff Funeral Home. Three of his children and one of his grandchildren are now in the funeral business. As you watch them work, you can see Bob's spirit refined and working through them.

This sense of self and place was expanded through fifteen years of time spent away. At thirteen, he left for Culver Military Academy in Indiana. From there he went on to Amherst College in Massachusetts. Upon graduation, he married, and enlisted in the Army, and became part of the Counterintelligence Corps at the age of 21, stationed in Philadelphia. He married Jean Carraci and had two children (Fred and Sandy Groff) by the time he was 23. After serving, Bob went to Mortuary school and then moved his family back to Lancaster to join the family business in 1955. Two more children (Lisa and David Groff) were born in Lancaster.

Bob worked for 45 years as a respected and highly regarded funeral director. His entrepreneurial spirit led him to successfully acquire 14 funeral homes in his career. Accolades such as The Exemplar Award from the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce, were a source of great pride for him.

There were a few life events that would deter most but Bob bounced back from each with a positive outlook for greater days ahead. Notably, Bob nearly lost his life in a horrific home invasion, in 1973.

Squash served as a healthy foundation and staple in his life. He and his dear friend of forty years, Wally Otto, played often and afterward would go out to breakfast with a group of cherished friends. Those meaningful breakfasts continued throughout his life, long after Squash was no longer an option, but the storytelling still was.

So legendary were Bob's foibles that his long-time good friend Mike Abel found him to be the perfect subject for a myriad of cartoons, fondly referred to as “Bobtoons.”

In 1976, Bob married Ellen Arnold Watt. She was an artist, and a life force, who brought two more children (Laura and Tim Watt) into Bob’s life. Married for thirty-six years, Bob and Ellen worked side-by-side growing the family business and were dedicated supporters of: The Lancaster Theological Seminary, Lancaster History, Hospice & Community Care, The Fulton Theatre, The Lancaster Museum of Art, Franklin & Marshall College, The Lancaster Symphony to name just a few. With their love of the Arts, they enjoyed supporting many artists in Lancaster and throughout the world. Unexpectedly, Ellen died in 2012, at the age of 67.

Bob married Linda Frankenfield in 2017, a spiritual advisor to her church community, and a gifted woman with whom Bob shared his life, his curiosity and his spirit, as he continued to serve Lancaster. He was one of the founders of the Parish Resource Center, donating and raising significant funds; and he worked with many in the religious and business community. He proudly started a New Conversations Group that has met monthly for more than thirty-six years.

The wonder of this man is lost if you talk only of his financial contributions or his fundraising acumen. He gave fully of himself. He encouraged and supported others with an energy that was transformational.

Bob was an exceptional, very human, being. His favorite poem, by Walt Whitman says it best; “Oh Captain, My Captain, our fearful trip is done. The ship has weathr’d every track, the prize we sought is won”. Bob’s was a life full of mighty challenges, and of love, laughter, a large and loving family, deep friendships, intellectual and spiritual adventures, and pure joy. He will be remembered for this always.

In addition to his wife Linda, Bob is survived by his children: R. Fred Groff husband of Robin, Sandy Groff husband of Nancy, Lisa Groff spouse to Kerry Halloran, David Groff, Laura Watt wife to Clark Thompson, Dr. Tim Watt husband of Amity Gaige, stepsons Dustin Frankenfield husband to Rebecca and Colonel Gordon Frankenfield. Bob was very proud of each of his grandchildren: Dr. Robert Groff husband of Stephanie, Dan Groff husband of Kyle, Sanford Groff spouse of Tony Romano, Spencer Groff husband to Tresha, Susan Kelly wife of Jamie, Tanner Groff, Sydney Groff, Gus Thompson, Lydia Thompson, Atis Watt and Freya Watt. Bob was blessed to have known his six great-grandchildren: Isabella, Ellis, Anastasia, Reagan, James and George.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Bob's Requiem Eucharist at St. James Episcopal Church, 119 N. Duke Street, Lancaster, PA 17063 on Saturday, November 11, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. with The Reverend David W. Peck as Celebrant. The family will receive friends from 9:30 a.m. until the time of service. A Viewing will be held at The Groffs Family Funeral Home, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA 17603 on Friday afternoon, November 10, 2023 from 3:00 p.m.–6:00 p.m. A Livestream of the service will be available at SaintJamesLancaster.org.

In true Bob fashion, colorful bow ties should be worn in his honor.

A private family interment will be held at Greenwood Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family sincerely requests that a memorial contribution be made in Bob's name to any organization that does positive things in our community or world. Bob believed deeply in this.

“ REMEMBERING BOB GROFF

We got to know Bob well in our several years working out at a gym with him.

His arrival always included a hale “Good Morning!” and hearty “How are you today?” to all he met.

We spent many sessions working out with him, often engaged in serious conversations while pedaling our bikes and covering topics from politics to spiritual life.

It was a special pleasure to hoot along with his delight in new and old jokes, puns, and witticisms, and then laugh along when he found his own material good.

One time we brought up “portals.” There was a widespread notion that passing through any doorway made you forget things. Every front, back, closet, screen and other door simply erased what you were thinking. You forgot to pick up your mail, take milk from the refrigerator, or that your eyeglasses were on your head.

Bob’s eyes immediately lit up with impish delight. “I like that. Can I use it?” He started pretending he forgot why he came into the elliptical bike room or was standing at the weight rack. “Why am I here? Oh, it’s that darned door again,” he laughingly told those nearby. Then he explained the door portal mystery.

We’ll miss Bob as will his friends and family. But we won’t forget him.

“ I first Bob in 1977 or 1978 when I served on the Mental Health committee which he chaired. Our paths crossed many times Over the next 40+ years. Every meeting was a joy and I will dearly miss his sparkling conversation and deep knowledge of local history. I was a witness to his sage and useful advice offered to LancasterHistory and appreciate the his role in making that institution the leader which it is now. He will be sorely missed and my sincerest condolences to his family at this most difficult time.

“ Dear Family:
Bob was a true and loyal friend that you could always have an interesting conversation with. It was not about him but about you. The impressive service and attendance was a testimony to his character and value to the community. Thanks for sharing him all these years.

“ What a lovely tribute that captures the essence of your dad. He brightened any room he walked into with his smile, and never looked at the Gilburg's with judgement as we rushed in behind the choir and took the right side BACK row. Love to you all during this sad time.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Lisa, David, and the entire Groff clan - including the many, many friends who became surrogate family - who grieve the loss of their elder statesman, resident philosopher, sartorial trendsetter, and beloved patriarch. Our community has lost a generous advocate and advisor who left an indelible mark on Lancaster. Bob leaves a legacy including many memorable "Bobisms" - nuggets of wisdom, wit, and silliness - the one that immediately springs to mind is his advice for a long life: always drink room-temperature water. Cheers to you, Bob! You always brought the fizz!

It was my privilege to know Bob over his last twenty years. His presence always made me smile. His wisdom made me ponder. Generous in thought and deed, he nourished optimism and assurance in his company. He was a keen observer of life. And I will always remember that Bob was a good man.

“ Our deep condolences to David, Lisa and the entire Groff family. Bob was a gentleman of the old school: thoughtful, interested in others and quick to share a warm smile or encouraging comment. My husband and I always looked forward to chatting with Bob. Bob was ageless. His passing has left a great void in our community.

“ I have so very many memories of Bob! Among my favorite memories are of the many times I went to London on the London theatre tour in my role at the Fulton with the then Artistic Director, Michael Mitchell. Bob, Ellen, Michael and I were the “ Four Musketeers!” We went everywhere together during the days we were not at a matinee. Museums, lunches, shopping you name it!

I had known Ellen for years and years, but only knew Bob from events and, of course, their gracious entertaining. Bob and Michael were a hoot together. Ellen and I called them “Frick and Frack.”

In those times together Bob’s uncanny wit, sense of humor and incredible curiosity for life and joy in the simplest things became a reason I loved the man as well as admiring and respecting him for all he did for Lancaster.

During the pandemic, we became phone buddies chatting about just about everything when the world was so bleak. He cheered me up so in our long conversations.

His abiding and unwavering faith in God and people always amazed me. His intellect never missed a beat through all of his life. He overcame a lot in his storied life but his zeal for life was infectious!

“ Bob and the Groff Family have been friends/neighbors since Atkins Ave. days. Despite the span of many years and now great geographic distance, Bob has been so valued as a friend. Surely the description “Well done, thou good and faithful servant” is a most fitting tribute. Keeping you close in my thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.

“ Bob had such a positive and infectious outlook on life. The cup was always half full for Bob. A favorite memory is playing tennis with Bob, 25 years my senior. He didn't project a lot of athleticism and I completely underestimated Bob's ability to run me around the court huffing and puffing, while he calmly placed shots and congratulated me on my effort. A profoundly kind man, the world is a better place for the life and love shared by Bob Groff. Andrea and I send our sympathy to Bob's wonderful family.

“ I remember a staff christmas party at Valley Rd when Bob took a few private minutes during the party to show me the art in the house. The impact of that stroll expanded my dedication to art and the beginning of special relationship that helped me strive to emulate his style in my businesses. Whenever I was in his company he always made me feel that I mattered. What a wonderful gift he gave to me & others!

“Edina and I offer our deepest sympathies to the Groff family. I have many fond memories of Bob from the 1970s when I was a frequent guest at his house, his youngest son David and I being close friends. I remember Bob taking us to basketball games and nativity displays at various Lancaster churches at Christmastime, and being invited to join the audience of WGAL's "Sunshine Corners" where David was a featured guest (and having to get up unusually early for a Saturday morning). I remember attending Bob and Ellen's wedding at Saint James Episcopal Church and getting to know David's new siblings while endlessly bicycling around North School Lane Hills. In the decades that followed whenever we bumped into one another Bob was always friendly and interested in what I was doing. My last memory of Bob, for which I am truly grateful, is of Linda and him thoroughly enjoying themselves at a soiree hosted by mutual friends about a year ago. Congratulations, Bob, on a life well lived! Thank you for all you and your forebearers did for Lancaster. May the Groff tradition of generosity and dedication to family, friends and community continue long into the future!
