“ Jim was our neighbor for more than 20 years. He was quick to help us when we needed something and always looked over our place when we were gone. I especially remember his willingness to use his snowblower to get our driveway clean after big snows. I will miss him a lot!

“ Sending thoughts and prayers to Jim's family.. he was such a sweet man. I met Jim and his wife & sister Polly when they would come to my restaurant in East Petersburg "Old Village Grille". Even after we closed our doors I will see/talk to him from time to time! Rest in peace Jim!!

“ I grew up with Jim's wonderful family. Jim's mom, despite being a mother of eight, would babysit for us, and his fabulous grandmother was our housekeeper for many, many years. Jim, Bobby, and Ronnie all worked on our farm in their youth, and I remember they worked hard. To me, the Kauffmans set an example of what family life should be, very close-knit and loving. The siblings and their spouses even have monthly get-togethers at a local restaurant. Not too many families do that. We share in your grief. Jon and Linda Gibson

Jon is so right. The Kauffmans were integral to us Gibsons ... 8 devoted siblings, family first, hard-working, and kind. We do indeed share in your grief. And heaven knows, we still miss Dee and Mrs. K.! You have our love and sympathy. Wylie Gibson Raab
