“ *Aunt Ebbie...Oh how we always looked forward to your visits to Texas! It was like holidays for us.
And the great times we had when we visited you in Pennsylvania.
You taught me a lot.
I love you so much! Thank you.*

“ My dear friend Cindy, Your Mom and Dad were always so gracious to include me as one of their own. I so remember the many meals spent on the sunporch in their home. Hot German potato salad was always a favorite, but the real treasure was time spent in the presence of simple, honest, gracious folk! I grieve with you at your Mom's passing, and pray for comfort and peace. You are well and truly loved!

“ My mind is flooded with wonderful memories of times my family spent with Evelyn and Emil. She was a wonderful homemaker and cook, and it was always a pleasure to spend time in her home. When our daughter (now 46 years old) was a preschooler, Evelyn would volunteer to watch her if I had a few errands to run that would be easier accomplished without a little one by my side. Susanna was always spoiled a little when Evelyn was in charge! Blessings to Cindy and the other family members who will miss this dear lady.

“ Evelyn was such a fine, gracious Southern Lady. She always made me feel welcome in her and Emil's home. They were a lovely couple together. May Evelyn find peace again in Emil's company. Sue Hynicker
